May 06, 2010

I am pleased to announce that I will be sponsoring legislation to amend the New York Religious Corporations Law to include the Hindu religion, the Sikh religion and the Islamic religion as separate and distinct entities.

In a multicultural, society such as that of New York State, it is imperative that all religions be recognized on their own merit.

I am fully aware of the diversity in the 10th Senatorial District and I am privileged to initiate this legislation on behalf of my constituents.

Sincerely,
